

Electrical Industry Faces Water Problems

In all probability the supply of water in Illinois will not be sufficient to meet the future needs of electric power companies unless action is taken to assure the well-being of our natural resources in the next few years, cautions Maynard P. Venema, co-chairman of the Illinoisans for Pure Air and Water Committee.

Venema, of Northfield, along with William L. Rutherford of Peoria heads the statewide committee whose purpose is to inform voters on the Natural Resources Development Bond Act to be on the ballot in November. The Bond Act provides for a 12-year multi-faceted effort for the development and management of the water, land and air resources of the state.

"Water is a vital aspect in the life of each Illinois resident, as well as, in the overall economic, industrial and agricultural growth of the state," Venema explains. "Yet, due to the lack of funding in the past, there has been a big gap between the projects planned and the action taken to protect and expand our resources."

"With tremendous growth expected in population and industry, and an increased need for water-related recreational facilities, Illinois faces a drastic shortage of water in the near future," Venema continued. "And, one of the major areas in which the demand for more water will be noted is that for our electric power plants."

The electric power industry in Illinois is composed of 82 generating and distributing systems—11 investor-owned companies, 43 public systems, and 28 cooperatives. Nine of the investor-owned companies operate generating and transmission systems, while two are distribution systems only. The public utilities consist of 27 generating and transmission units, and 16 distribution companies. The 28 electric cooperatives operate distribution systems, with one also operating a generating and transmission plant.

The total energy generated by the power industry company in Illinois in 1960 was reported to be 34,624 million kilowatts per hour. This represented a growth of 26.5 per cent between 1950 and 1960.

The Federal Power Commission estimates that by 1980, requirements for electrical power will increase by 240 percent above the 1960 figure.

These projections indicate that the greatest increase will occur in residential and industrial use of power. Farm usage of power will increase at a lesser rate of growth. On the basis of these figures, however, it is estimated that Illinois power companies will be producing 117,946 million kilowatts per hour, which will require about 31 billion gallons of water per day to meet the demand in 1980. Within 50 years, the electrical energy requirements will be nearly 18 times the present figure.

Generally, fuel for the thermal generating plants can be transported to the plants and electrical energy can be carried away from the load centers fairly economically and easily, Venema pointed out. But, water for cooling purposes cannot economically be moved any great distance to the thermal electric plant, thus these generating plants are built where the water is easily available.

The principal demand imposed upon the water supply by the thermal electric plants, which have 99.6 per cent of all Illinois electric generating capacity, is for condenser cooling water. Boiler makeup water is required for all steam-electric plants, and some installations also use water for sluicing ashes, but this use has relatively minor effects on the water supply.

The two important aspects of condenser cooling are the amount of water required to flow through a condenser to produce an acceptable high vacuum, and the amount of cooling water which evaporates as a result of the increase of its temperature. Heat requirements of steam-electric plants depend upon heat loss from boiler furnaces, heat loss from electric generators, the heat equivalent of electric generator output, and the heat energy remaining in the steam leaving the turbines. Thus, the efficiency of generating plants affects the requirement for cooling water.

The eight plants which serve the northeastern industrial area pump water from the Illinois Waterway System. Presently, they circulate nearly 3.4 billion gallons daily. Lake Michigan is the source of 0.7 billion gallons daily of water used at only one plant located in the northeastern part of the state. Each of the generating plants along the Mississippi and Illinois Rivers accounts for more than 1.5 bgd. One plant on the Ohio River circulates nearly 0.6 bgd. The remaining plants are located either near the Rock, Wabash, or Fox Rivers or have lake water supplies.

Antioch To Participate In Adult Night School

Four area high schools have announced plans for their first co-operative adult evening school. The Antioch, Grant, Grayslake, and Round Lake high school districts have formed the co-operative to offer more classes.

Registrations for the forty-two courses, ranging from sewing to foreign policy, will be taken at each of the high school offices. Students may register during the regular school hours, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday, September 23, through Wednesday, September 25, in the high school offices.

According to Marvin Smith of Grayslake High School, who is co-ordinator of the program, the location of the classes will be determined by the number of registrants in each district and individual teacher preference. The co-operative will enable area residents to avail themselves of a much wider range of courses. In the past individual schools were able to offer only three or four courses. Fees for the courses begin at $11.00 for a 10 week course and range to $17.00 for a 15 week course. This fee includes the $1.00 registration fee. In classes requiring textbooks, the students will be required to make a small additional payment. A minimum of 11 students must register for each course.

Dirksen Will Attend Republican Function

Republican minority leader, Sen. Everett Dirksen, has confirmed plans to attend Republican Official's Day at the Serbian Monastery next Sunday, according to Robert J. Milton, Lake County G.O.P. chairman.

In announcing Dirksen's acceptance of the invitation, Milton said, "while we expect to have Senator Dirksen at least one more time this fall, Sunday's appearance might be the only occasion Lake Countians will have to see him on a local platform during the campaign."

Rumors that Congress will not adjourn until sometime in October and Senator Dirksen's heavy commitment of campaign appearances for the Nixon-Agnew ticket are given as the reasons for a possible limitation in his speaking schedule.

Hailed earlier this year, by his fellow Republicans, as the "Senator of the Century," Senator Dirksen will attend a party picnic in the morning at Quawka, Illinois to be followed by a Henderson and Warren counties joint rally at 1 p.m. He is expected to arrive at the monastery picnic grounds around 4 p.m.

Hopes were still alive this week that Gov. Spiro Agnew would share the platform with Senator Dirksen. William Rentschler, Lake Forest, Chairman of the Illinois Citizens for Nixon-Agnew, has been working to complete arrangements for the Vice-presidential candidate to appear here.

News sources reported earlier this week that Agnew would be in Chicago on Saturday and would possibly stay over to make the Lake County affair on Sunday.

Robert Repke, Chairman of the county board and general chairman for the event announced one change in the picnic plans. Depke said that food service would be uninterrupted between 1 p.m. and sundown. It had been planned previously to suspend the food lines during the program period which is still scheduled for 4 p.m.

Reason for the change said Depke is "the phenomenal response to ticket sales and an anticipated record breaking attendance for a Lake County political event."

The day has been "dubbed" Republican Official's Day and is being co-sponsored by the Lake County Republican Central Committee and elected county officers. The Serbian Monastery is located on Rt. 63 north of Libertyville and just south of Rt. 120. Gates are scheduled to open at noon.

Project Vietnam Saluted

A letter dated Sept. 3 and addressed to Contributors of Project Vietnam was received recently. It read: "Thank you so much for the gift package just recently received. The gifts you sent were distributed and the patients in the Medical Wards with high temperature elevations were delighted with the soft drink mixes. They are always most appreciative."

"Thank you again for remembering our patients. May God reward your generosity and kindness."

"Sincerely,
Ouida R. Mire,
Chief, Nursing Service"

Another mailing for Project Vietnam will go forward within the next few weeks. Anyone wishing to give a contribution toward this mailing can do so at the Antioch Post Office.

Recent contributors to Project Vietnam include:

Mrs. Nils Rosquist, Mrs. A. Kaminski, Mrs. Felix Langhof, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reeder, Eugene and Agnes Simonson, Mrs. Robert Hart, Benes Construction Co., Joe Domke, Joe and Rose Borovicka, State Bank of Antioch, Mr. and Mrs. James Caple, Paty's Lounge, First National Bank, Frank ReCupido, James Koemoud, Joan Zubor, Fred W. Oshmann, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferris, Adeline Bywell, Irving Appel, Mrs. Warren Polley, Mrs. Westhoff.

Estimated Tax Due On Sept. 16

September 16 is the due date for the third installment of individual's 1968 estimated tax, but in addition, it's the day when over 200,000 Chicago area taxpayers must revise their estimates to reflect the surcharge (tax increase or file a declaration) and make an initial installment payment, according to E. C. Coyle, Jr., District Director.

The surcharge rate is nominal, but since the surcharge began on April 1, 1968 the effective rate for individuals is 7.5 per cent. This rate is applicable to the entire year's income even though earned prior to April 1, 1968.

Estimated taxes will have to be recomputed to take the surcharge into account and the additional tax resulting from the surcharge, must be paid equally over the remaining installment dates of Sept. 16, 1968 and Jan. (Continued on page three)

'Micker' Home For Good

A big banner, reading "WELCOME HOME MICKER" was waiting for Spec. S. Michael R. Johnson as he returned home from Vietnam.

"Micker" is the son of the Melvin L. Johnsons of Channel Lake Shores and is a 1964 graduate of Antioch High School.

Mike has completed two years of service with the army and is now home for good. He spent six months in Qui Nhon and six months in Da Nang, in South Vietnam.

"I sure enjoyed receiving the Antioch News and also the packages from Project Vietnam," he said. "The Antioch people have sure been wonderful to the fellows over there, and it was a real morale booster to receive all those packages. I especially enjoyed reading letters in the Antioch News from other servicemen that I knew."

Mike visited Hong Kong and saw the rice paddies in the country and was amazed at the modernness of the city with its skyscrapers, paved streets and many cars.

Mike served as a clerk-typist with the 45th Engineering Group.

Local 4-H'ers Will Appear On Television

On August 7, 25 members of six Lake County 4-H clubs participated in the taping of the program, "Your Dollar's Worth," an educational program moderated by Miss Lee Phillip of TV Station WBBM.

Fifteen 4-H'ers posed questions to the program's guests who were: Miss Ann Coulter, a member of Mayor Daly's Jobs for Youth Committee; Mr. Ken Anderson, the Associate Director of the National 4-H Service in Chicago; and Mr. Robert Abate, the vice-president of the American National Bank of Chicago.

The program's emphasis was on the financial and job preparation problems of teenagers and young adults. It was emphasized that employers are more willing to hire young people who have had experiences in youth groups especially such groups as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and 4-H. The program will appear from 11-11:30 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 15.

Mrs. Barbara Dahl, Lake County Assistant Extension Adviser, made the arrangements for the group's appearance. Participating in the program were:

Mrs. J. C. Davis and Mrs. Edward Hevrdje, Antioch; Mrs. J. Markham and Mrs. Joseph Jacobs, of Mundelein; Mrs. Melbourne Mudd, of Libertyville, and Mrs. Mary Lou Mahler, Round Lake.

Four 4-H'ers: Mary Markham, Nancy Jacobs, Roseann Jacobs, Lynn Nachowicz, of Mundelein. Shirley Szydlowski, and Janet Miller, of Fox Lake; Susan Severson, Lake Villa; Pam Bacon and Gwen Bacon, of McHenry; DeeDee Russell, of Round Lake; Barbara Wertke, of Ingleside.

Bonnie Davis, Alison Hevrdje, Donna Kessler, Joan Apostol and Joan Harmon, of Antioch.

Mother Of Three Killed By Bullet

A former Antioch area mother of three was killed Sunday when she was shot by a 6-year-old boy who fired his father's target pistol.

Dead is Mrs. Carol Sheen, 28, of Rte. 1, Wadsworth, mother of three children.

The bullet struck Mrs. Sheen as she sat outside a tavern in a nearby auto near Cross Lake, Wis.

Sheriff's police from Kenosha County said the boy's father was returning home after a target shooting session at the abandoned Bong Air Force Base.

He had gone into the tavern leaving the boy alone with a .22 caliber target pistol.

Police said the boy took the weapon and fired it once, but it failed to discharge. He fired it again and the bullet struck Mrs. Sheen who was sitting with her three children, Katherine, 6, Pamela, 4, and Brett, 5.

Mrs. Sheen was born Sept. 4, 1940 at Channel Lake near Antioch, and had lived in the Antioch area all her life.

She was a member of the Antioch Methodist Church and the Newport School PTA. The former Carol McGlynn, she married James L. Sheen on Sept. 16, in Antioch Methodist Church.

Surviving besides her husband and children, are her mother, Mrs. Russell G. Breul, Camp Lake, Wis., her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Albertie Rogers, Camp Lake, three sisters, Mrs. Ruth Trussell, Camp Lake, Mrs. Margaret Runyard, Channel Lake, Mrs. Barbara Bjork, Channel Lake, and a brother, Douglas McGlynn, of Wisconsin Rapids.

Services were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at Strang Funeral Home, Antioch. The Rev. Donald Cobb of the Antioch Methodist Church, officiated.

Burial was in Liberty Cemetery, north of Antioch.

Kenosha sheriff's deputies refused to release the name of the youngster or his father pending further investigation into the case.

Census Bureau To Ask About Immunization

Families in this area will be asked about immunizations against smallpox, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, measles and mumps by Census Bureau interviewers during the week of Sept. 16, 1968, Director Theodore F. Olson of the Bureau's Regional Office in Chicago announced.

The interviewers will inquire about immunization of adults against smallpox and polio and the immunization of children against all these diseases.

Questions about immunization will be in addition to the Bureau's monthly survey of employment and unemployment for the U. S. Department of Labor.

Programs Needed

Groups along the Chain O' Lakes, which have opportunity in the near future to improve the area, will have the opportunity in the near future to express those views.

And the interested party will be the Northern Illinois Water Resources and Conservation Commission.

This group, which is studying the pollution and recreational problems in 30 northern counties of Illinois, recently toured the Chain.

They were impressed with the immensity of this natural resource and are greatly concerned about its future.

But they need help, just like we do.

They have a sympathetic ear, but they don't want to just listen to a lot of hogwash. They want something concrete that they can take back to the legislature in the form of a recommendation for a program of betterment.

The commission will be sending out letters soon, setting up hearing dates. And they will be coming sooner than you think.

So if there are improvement programs in the works with various groups, get them solidified.

Don't miss this opportunity to try and improve our area.

Why Wait So Long

The Lake County Crime Commission in a recent bulletin has made much of the "fact" that many of the midway games at the Lake County Fair were rigged to bilk the public.

The blast at the Midway came in a release dated August 30.

If our memory serves us correctly, the Lake County Fair was held in July.

The Crime Commission says that "many of the games were obviously rigged, making it impossible for the gullible participants to win."

We ask the Lake County Crime Commission why it waited so long.

If its members visited the midway at the fair and found that many of the games were rigged and they were games of chance instead of skill, why didn't the crime commission call the sheriff's office?

It seems to be kind of allowing the horse to be stolen before closing the barn door to wait this long to complain.

We didn't see any substantiation of the Crime Commission's blanket charges in the release. It just said it was there and therefore it must be.

No one was named. No games were named.

We have no quarrel with the Lake County Crime Commission for the work it is attempting to do.

But we would put a more careful attitude on releases which make blanket statements without anything showing to back it up.

The Commission also suggested that future contracts for the midway space be specific as to what is and is not allowed.

We are in complete agreement with that.

We don't want our citizens fleeced, either.

If, in the future, the Lake County Crime Commission has information of wrongdoing, we would suggest that the information be turned over to the authorities for proper action.

This would be a proper attitude, rather than waiting.

To the Editor
The Antioch News,

Dear Sir:

The invasion of Czechoslovakia, technically a free and independent country for the past 20 years, by Russia, has moved the U.S. to action, or rather its customary reaction to Communist moves.

The President warned aggressors not to misjudge America and said there would be no appeasement of those who prowl across national boundaries. He did not mention economic sanctions, or breaking off of diplomatic relations. No indeed, this would interfere with the bridge-building policies of the accommodationists, who apparently have the last word on American foreign policy.

Plans to send the Minnesota University band to Moscow and other Russian cities in September are being reconsidered, because of the Czech crisis, and may be cancelled. This will show the intransigent Russians that we really mean business.

A Secretary of State has said: "We do not have a foreign policy, we have 100 foreign policies." The President exercises one of the alternatives to appease erstwhile ally Great Britain. Britain's ships haul supplies to North Vietnam and Ian Smith has offered men and supplies to aid the American effort in Vietnam. Nevertheless, an executive order called for extensive sanctions "boycott" against import and export trade with Rhodesia, with Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

The most perplexing item remaining on the legislative agenda is probably H. R. 17126, a bill to extend the "Food and Agriculture Act of 1965." For want of a creative new appeal, the Congress appears bent on delaying a forthright attack on the deep-rooted problems of American agriculture. Consequently, the immediate question appears to be whether the Congress will meet the problem head-on next year or defer action until the year after—or the year after that.

The existing agricultural "support and subsidy" program was enacted as a depression antidote in 1933. The same general formula is being followed 35 years later as a cost to the American taxpayer of more than $2.5 billion per year.

Despite this exorbitant overhead, American farmers themselves continue to suffer economic detriment under a huge bureaucracy directed from Washington. The hardest hit have been the small family farmers, more than 2 million of whom netted an average of only $1,500 each in 1967 under the existing law. Indeed, the large commercial farm operators who have no need for subsidy payments are the chief beneficiaries of the present program. One commercial operator in the state of California collected more than $4 million from the government in 1967.

There are many who favor severe penalties for violation of the imperial edict.

Yours truly,

Robert C. Baker
Route 1, Box 108-D
Eads, Tenn.

junking the existing farm program and moving agriculture more closely into our private enterprise system. One such recommendation delineated by Robert G. Lewis of Washington, D. C., urges abandonment of present foreign aid efforts aimed at self-sufficiency in food production abroad. Mr. Lewis' study recommends maximum U. S. production of agricultural goods with shipment of surpluses to the undernourished peoples in other parts of the world. In other words, instead of encouraging food production by the people in those areas, they would receive our agricultural surpluses and, in turn, they would be encouraged to develop the products of their local industries and artisans for which there is demand in this and other countries. Mr. Lewis, a former Department of Agriculture official, suggests "the present-day population" should be translated into "a tremendous boom" to this nation's farming and food business.

Lewis recommends the U. S. to move:

"Toward the expansion of demand, rather than contraction of supply.

"Toward aggressive market-building for American farm products, rather than withdrawal of substantial American farming resources from competition in world markets.

"Toward enterprise, imagination and innovation in efforts to enable potential customers to buy more of the food that they need and which we can supply economically, rather than encouraging them to adopt inefficient self-sufficiency national economic and trade policies."

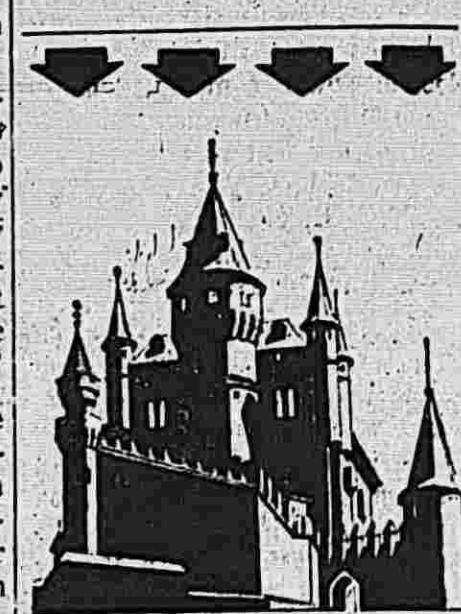

It is not enough to criticize outworn, inefficient and extravagant programs such as exist in agriculture. Indeed, it is necessary to outline new and better approaches to this problem which affects our entire Nation.

Some 850,000 people quit America's farms in 1967 principally for economic reasons. This exodus from the rural areas to urban centers helped to compound the problem in our American cities. An Agricultural program which improves economic conditions on the farm will concurrently spread its benefits to the cities.

One of the sharpest critics of the existing agricultural dilemma is Democratic Senator Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut. At the same time, Senator Ribicoff and a number of his Senate colleagues have offered a two-point program coupling (a) an expansion of the farmers' market and (b) an encouragement to industry to locate in rural areas.

It is unlikely that any great innovations in farm policy will be initiated during the closing weeks of this Congress. However, refusal to extend the existing law would force the Congress to adopt a new program next year. Under pressure of this kind the Congress could encourage improvements in rural and urban America and halt the debilitating conditions which have plagued American farmers since 1933.

Vets Home Loan Higher In July

Housing starts, appraisal requests on both proposed and existing dwellings, and applications for home loan guaranty—the four major categories of G.I. home activities—were higher in July than in June, the Veterans Administration reported today.

July 1968 housing starts of 5,220 were 5 per cent above June's 4,972 and 8.1 per cent higher than the 4,829 of July 1967.

Appraisal requests on proposed dwellings totaled 12,482 in July, up 20.3 per cent from June's 10,378 and 2.1 per cent above the 12,311 total of July 1967.

Appraisal requests on existing dwellings in July totaled 21,366, exceeding the June figure of 19,689 by 8.5 per cent but 14.2 per cent below the 24,916 for the same month a year ago.

Applications for home loan guaranty reached 23,061 in July, up 15.1 per cent from the June figure of 20,031 but 10.5 per cent below the 25,767 of July 1967.

On a seasonally adjusted annual basis appraisal requests for both proposed and existing dwellings were higher in July than in June. Requests on proposed dwellings totaled 135,000 in July, up 12.5 per cent from the 120,000 in June, while appraisal requests on existing dwellings climbed to 208,000 in July, 4.5 per cent higher than June's figure of 199,000.

Housing starts on a seasonally adjusted annual basis totaled 52,000 in July, 3.7 per cent less than the 54,000 in June.

Rep. Official's Day Sunday Sept. 15 Nixon-Agnew Invited

NIXON-AGNEW INVITED—Lake County Republicans have set Sunday, September 15 as the target date for the start of an accelerated campaign in their bid for total victory in November.

County G.O.P. Chairman, Robert J. Milton of Lake Forest told this week, of plans for a county-wide "Republican Officials Day" to be held at the Serbian Monastery picnic grove on route 63, north of Libertyville.

General chairman for the day-long affair is Robert Depke, Guerne, chairman of the County Board. Elected county officers head up each of the picnic operating committees, aided by precinct committeemen and party officials.

Billed as an "Old Fashioned Steer Roast" the day's menu will feature open pit barbecued beef prepared and served by a committee of nearly 100, headed by County Auditor John Darrow and States Attorney candidate, Jack Hoogasian.

Plans for the affair originated early in July and went into high gear when a committee composed of Depke, Milton, Hoogasian, and Goss Granna bid for and bought the Reserve Grand Champion steer at the Lake County Fair.

Events of the day will follow the traditional political picnic pattern. Food service will start at 1 p.m. and continue through the afternoon until 4 p.m. when a short formal program will be presented. Serving will be resumed immediately following the platform festivities and continue until sundown.

State and local candidates and political personalities will be introduced during the afternoon and from the platform prior to the major address which is to be delivered by a Republican speaker from the national scene.

Invitations have been sent to Presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, his running-mate Governor Spiro Agnew and Senator Everett M. Dirksen, according to Milton who hopes to announce the featured speaker this week.

In addition to bands and entertainment, Chairman Depke said, "the kids will come in for special attention." He promises games and races throughout the afternoon with prizes and the "usual refreshment favorites" free to the younger set.

Other committee chairmen for the occasion are: Circuit Clerk Stephanie Pucin Sulthin, Lake Bluff, and County Treasurer Raymond J. Sheahan, Highland Park, Tickets; Recorder Frank Nustra, Highland, and School Superintendent W. C. Petty, Antioch, Games and Races; County Clerk Truman G. Gerretsen, Fox Lake, and Coroner Pat Clavey, Wadsworth, Prizes and Refreshments; and Sheriff Harold Scheskie, Wadsworth, Traffic Control and Security.

Raymond J. Lindroth, Libertyville, Treasurer of the Central Committee, is serving as Treasurer for the event and Hugh S. Robinson, Deerfield, Central Committee Secretary, will handle platform and seating arrangements.

Thefts Reported

Theft of a boat trailer at a boat landing at Silver Lake was reported by Eugene W. Metten of Kenosha on Saturday, Aug. 24. The trailer was equipped with an electric winch and had been hooked from an auto.

Thieves removed a screen and opened an unlocked window to gain entry to the Paddock Lake-Keeper Lake Ass'n building at Paddock Lake last Thursday. Theft of a full barrel and two cases of beer was reported. The barrel, half empty and the empty cases were found in a field behind the building.

While Jack Bloss and family of Rt. 2, Wheatland, attended a picnic at Paddock Lake, thieves broke into their home and took $2,500 in cash, a color TV set and several other items. Bloss said the house was locked, but deputies were unable to find any signs of forced entry.

Officials Discuss Plan for Policing Preserve Picnics

Plans to require groups holding picnics in the Forest Preserve next summer to hire police protection at their own expense, are being considered by Forest Preserve officials.

A tentative plan is to have the sheriff maintain a list of police who would accept this off-duty work, have the organization hire the ones they want and pay them.

The district police committee feels if beer is served, it is up to organizations holding the picnic to provide police protection to see that rowdiness is controlled. Forest Preserve rangers were attacked by rowdies on two occasions this summer, who had too much to drink.

Water Problems....

These pumpage figures represent only the amount of water required to pass through condensers, rather than that withdrawn from the water supply.

An estimate of water needs should also include the demands for nuclear energy. The Dresden Plant in Grundy County is the first plant in Illinois to be operated with nuclear fuel. It pumps 280 million gallons daily of Kankakee River water. A second nuclear plant is proposed in the Rock Island-Moline area.

In the next decade, it is reasonable to assume that the power companies will add and retire units according to long-range needs, Venema pointed out. Some of the future plants will be nuclear powered and will require more water than plants using fossil fuels. Also, to be considered in the future, is the necessity to find huge water bodies capable of absorbing waste heat energy. Illinois now has two such sites: one on the west shore of Lake Michigan, and another along the lower Mississippi River.

On the basis of projections, there will be a need for a cooling capacity of 162.8 billion gallons of water per day in the next fifty years.

"We know these needs will be challenging us in the near future," Venema said. "It is up to the citizens of Illinois to take the first steps now to insure a sufficient supply of pure water for their various requirements, including that of electrical power."

Estimated Tax....

Employers have adjusted their withholding rate on wages and salaries to take the surcharge into account but this may not cover the tax liability of individuals in the higher wage brackets and those who had recent increases in earnings. These employees as well as self-employed persons should make the necessary adjustment with their third quarter installment or file a declaration and make an initial installment payment.

To figure the estimated tax including the surcharge, the IRS has enclosed a special Worksheet with the third quarter estimated tax notice. Although the Worksheet offers complete instructions, most taxpayers need only use a portion of it to compute the tax. The taxpayers should use the reverse side of the third installment notice, Form 3443, to make the changes.

Notices were not sent to over 35,000 individuals who made full payment on April 15, 1968 when they filed their declarations. They should, however, consider revising their estimates using Form 1040ES (Amended) which may be obtained together with the Worksheet from any IRS office.

Coyle had this advice for taxpayers to avoid penalty for underpayment — individuals who based their 1968 estimated tax on their 1967 tax should file an amended declaration because they cannot continue to rely on last year's tax test to avoid penalty.

An additional charge of 1/2% per month is imposed by law for underpayment of installments of estimated tax.

Individuals who did not file a declaration because their estimated tax was expected to be less than $40.00 may be required to file a declaration if the surcharge increases their estimated tax to $40.00 or more.

As long as taxpayers meet at least 80 per cent of their tax liability for the year, either through withholding or estimated tax payments, they will not be subject to any penalty for underpayment of estimated tax.

Coyle concluded by explaining that if no previous declaration was filed but one is now due to reflect the surcharge increase, the taxpayer should file a declaration on the 1968 revised Form 7040ES, Form 1040ES as well as the Worksheet may be obtained at any IRS office.

(Next time, get draft-free, even, electric heat.)

There's something you really ought to know about flame heating systems: they cause drafts.

Air is consumed in the burning process. So, a draft is created that draws in dirty, cold air from outside.

Electric heat won't do that. Because there's no flame.

Which is why electric heat, and only electric heat, can promise you even, controlled heat that's free from drafts. So if you get that chilly, creepy feeling around your ankles on days when it's cold outside—well, we cannot tell a lie.

Your flame-system did it.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 7

Sequoits Ready To Beat Salem

Coach Roy Nelson hasn't announced his opening line-up but he is very optimistic about the big game tomorrow night at Salem and feels the Sequoits will be ready and able to beat Salem. Salem has never defeated an Antioch football team. Many of the games have been close—last year's score was 14-13—so Salem will be out determined to get their first win over Antioch.

Last Saturday, Coach Roy Nelson divided his football players into two teams—the Reds and the greys—for a scrimmage game. The boys learned a few things about the game and it was evident that they were not as polished as they should have been.

Steve Owens, q.b.; Dave Camp, h.b.; and Kevin O'Neill, turned in fine performances. Ralph Zank was outstanding in offense and defense. Zank was an all-conference half-back last year.

Jim Carlson did a fine job on offense as far as catching was concerned. Ted Gruzicki, Jim Shore and Jim Polley were great on defense.

John Meyer who is 5' 8" and weighs 150 lbs., has the desire of a 200 pounder. He'll be out of the game for a week or so with a pulled hamstring muscle in the back of the leg.

Tom Lasco from Burlington.

did a good job on the defense. Terry Triplett is lost to the team due to a broken finger suffered during pre-season practice. Jerry Martin is also out with a sprained ankle.

Thirty-seven boys make up this year's varsity football squad, 21 seniors and 16 juniors. Of the 21 seniors, 11 are returning letterwinners.

John Meyer, 130 pound line-backer and quarterback.

Ralph Zank, wing back and all-conference defensive half-back.

Steve Owens, veteran quarterback.

Dave Camp, running back.

Fred Koch, fullback and defensive end.

Jim Shore, center and line-backer.

Don Gaa, offensive guard.

Don Effinger, offensive tackle and defensive end.

Larry Ryan, offensive line-backer.

Jim Carlson, offensive end and defensive safety.

Mike Patterson, senior guard.

Up from last year's undefeated sophomore team:

Lou Nielsen, q.b.

Terry Triplett, h.b.

Rick LaChance, f.b.

Ron Oza, center

Jim Polley, center

Don Carlson, guard

Ted Gruzicki, guard

Al Powers, tackle

Jim Haley, tackle

Mike Ring, tackle

Dan Sterbenz, end

Rick Nelson, end

Keith Staffeldt, tackle

Gary Lischewski, h.b.

Other members of the squad are:

Tom Lasco, h.b., a transfer from Burlington, Wis.

Jerry Martin, f.b. from last year's varsity team.

Dennis Pleviak, f.b., from last year's squad.

Tim Wells, center, a senior

Chuck Hollocker, sr. guard

Chuck Madsen, sr. tackle

Jim Haley, jr. tackle.

Larry Buchta, jr. end

Tom Nickerson, sr. end

Jay Horton, sr. h.b.

Al Hagerty Gets Clean Sweep Sat. At Waukegan

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 7—Al Hagerty beat all comers as he won every race he entered at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night for an outstanding clean sweep. Hagerty, who entered his 1967 Chevelle in mid-season, closed the gap a little on Jim Cossman, the point leader.

Hagerty set fast time by 0.70 second, and then came from last spot to win the trophy dash. To show his speed was no fluke, Al stormed from last to third in the first lap and went on to win the fastest heat race.

The feature looked to be a different story. Dennis Burgan came off the pole to average a loss two weeks ago and stacked up a fantastic lead over Willie Winchester and Jack Ester after ten laps. Hagerty passed Cossman while both were well back in the field and stormed into second spot on the 27th lap.

Burgan still held a half lap lead; however, Hagerty ate into that substantially with every passing lap. Burgan's whose transmission dropped a gear halfway through the event, only held about a ten car length lead when Dick Vanderspool and Hagerty tangled in the 32nd lap with Vanderspool's car stranded in a potentially dangerous position on the track bringing out the red flag.

At the restart Hagerty went right into the lead in the 40 lap event with Burgan dropping to third at the finish. Hagerty's clean sweep was dampened when the water pump and fan were ripped off in the collision with Vanderspool causing him to cook his engine in the remaining eight laps.

Norm Zenko scored a popular victory over Bob Hopkins in the 10 car semi-feature event. Zenko, winning by a large length spun wildly in the second turn after crossing the finish line and the car burst into flames as the power steering hose sprayed fluid on the exhaust manifold. Quick work with a screwdriver by Zenko put the hose back in place and Zenko then circled the track with the checkered as the feature cars lined up.

Rose Show Attracts Over 5000 People

The second annual show of the Northeastern Illinois Rose Society on Sept. 8 was a huge success—not only because the average person loves roses, but also because of the wonderful newspaper and radio coverage.
